

Writing Small Moments

1st Writers think of something that really happened to them.

2nd Writers picture what happened in their minds. They see a movie in their mind.  They tell it as a story across their fingers.

3rd They sketch it on the paper.

4th They write words that transform their sketches into Small Moment stories.

5th Writers add details, setting, internal thinking, dialogue, character actions, physical description and illustrations.

6th Writers Revise

7th Writers Edit
